We, Eric Ukiwo and Ugo Ukiwo are applying for a visitor visa at the invitation of our son Ukiwo Ireke Ireke who lives in the UK and who is getting married before God on 15 December 2023 to his blessed wife Mrs Gladys Uwakwe. Ukiwo is our firstborn and his church wedding is a special moment not only in his life but also in ours as parents. He and his wife invited us to be part of this very important moment of their lives and we have accepted the invitation. They will be paying everything for us, from the flight down to feeding us during the 4 weeks we are going to be with them. The parents of Gladys, Mr & Mrs Ogbonnaya Uwakwe have offered to accommodate us during our stay so that we could hold meetings to finalise the preparation of the big event. We will be staying in the UK until new year to celebrate Christmas and New Year with our son and his wife. We will return to Cameroon on 05 January where I will resume my trading business and my wife will continue taking care of the family.

Consent

If your application is successful, there will be conditions on your visa or leave to remain. This will include, for example, whether you are able to work in the UK.

If you stay in the UK without permission:

- You can be detained
- You can be prosecuted, fined and imprisoned
- You can be removed and banned from returning to the UK
- You will not be allowed to work
- You will not be able to rent a home in England

I confirm that I understand and accept these conditions

- You will not be able to claim any benefits and can be prosecuted if you try to
- You can be charged by the NHS for medical treatment
- You can be denied access to a bank account
- DVLA can prevent you from driving by taking away your driving licence

You cannot get free medical treatment from the NHS, unless you are exempt from charges. If you do not pay for any billed treatment this may affect future visa applications.

You or your family members are not entitled to receive state-funded education whilst in the UK (except for children of academics visiting the UK for 12 months).

You should leave the UK when your visa ends. If not, you may be removed and banned from the UK.
